Innovation, research and high-tech bridge
in Western Greece

The π1-innohub is located in Patras, the capital of the region of Western Greece and the third largest urban center of Greece. Also known as the gate of Greece to the West, Patras is one of the most productive areas of the country. The π1-innohub is within walking distance from the University of Patras and three kilometers from the junction of the Athens-Patras National Road and the unique Rio-Antirio bridge. It aspires to contribute to the acceleration of the development of innovative companies in Western Greece by making use of operational and business resources as well as services which have been developed and are provided by Corallia. The innohub works with the same high quality standards as those of the successful and award-winning α1-innohub in Maroussi.
